The parade of Father Frosts in the Belovezhskaya Pushcha, in honour of the 10th anniversary of the estate of the Belarusian Father Frost

Parade in the Pushcha always the same

Parade of Father Frosts takes place in Belovezhskaya Pushcha, during celebration of 10th anniversary of estate of Belarusian Father Frost

New Year characters joined those from fairy tales, from Belarus and Russia, taking part in the procession. The Father Frost from Veliky Ustyug, the Tatar Father Frost, Kysh Babai, the Father Frost of the Cossacks of the world from Gatchina, and the Karelian Father Frost, Pakkaine, all came to congratulate the Belarusian miracle-worker.

At the same time, Europe's tallest living Christmas tree, which grows in the Belov-ezhskaya Pushcha, celebrated its 150th anniversary. The evergreen beauty is more than 40 metres in height and visitors traditionally gather at its foot, singing songs and making wishes.
